

RUSSELL DEAN

Russell has been in music for 30 years. He has performed everything from classic rock to country to gospel with popular artists such as Michael Combs, Lavern Tripp, Billy Joe Royal, Ronnie McDowell, The Swinging Medallions and REO Speedwagon, as well as many others. In addition to performing for President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter, Russell has sung at Congressional and Senate inaugurations, National Gospel Music Award shows and Atlanta Fest.

Russell's music is now being heard around the world. He is a national recording artist with Crossroads Records with the company's Pinnacle label. His first single release "Hazel Green Eyes" will hit the gospel music airwaves in June 2009.

God has gifted Russell with a inspiring and powerful voice and an anointing to lead people to Christ. He does not sing just for entertainment but to see lives changed. Woven throughout Russell's music are the ups and downs of life he has experienced that make his songwriting very familiar in today's world.

Russell will captivate the audience with his voice and energy that when combined become contagious and fun for everyone. He blends his original music with some of today's top Christian artists' hits to make his performance powerfully entertaining. He will gladly bear witness to his Christian beliefs and work to lead others to Christ.

For more in-depth information on Russell's testimony and music style, please visit him on the web: russelldeanmusic.com